

Awards Nomination Form

Nova Scotia Veterinary Medical Association

The Nova Scotia Veterinary Medical Association has chosen to honour individuals for their work related to the field of veterinary medicine. The following three awards are open for nomination on an annual basis and the awards will be presented this year at the Annual General Meeting which will be held in October 2015.

Nominations may be forwarded to the NSVMA Office any time between now and September 8, 2015 to be considered for the 2015 Awards. Submissions may be made by email or by surface mail. Please mark them to the attention of the Awards Committee.

★ Award of Merit:

This award will be presented to a Veterinarian, Registered Veterinary Technologist or a member of the community, who has made significant contributions to the veterinary profession, the NSVMA, the well being of animals, and who has enhanced the public image and public awareness of the veterinary profession.

★ Young Veterinarian Award:

This award will be presented to a recent graduate (2005 or later) who has made an outstanding contribution to the veterinary profession and his/her community.

★ The Dr. Hubert S. Bennett Award for Leadership in Veterinary Medicine:

Dr. Bennett practiced veterinary medicine in Nova Scotia for over 50 years and he is remembered for his long career of compassionate animal care. This award will be presented to a veterinarian who has a strong career of achievement and dedication to the profession.

You may nominate a maximum of one person for each award.
Please use a separate piece of paper for each nomination.
